

National Advocate Credentialing Program

NACP DISCLAIMER FOR ALL LEVELS OF CREDENTIALING

- NACP, as a voluntary, national credentialing body for advocates and providers of crime victim services, makes every effort to ensure that applicants meet the minimum standards for experience, whether paid or volunteer, as well as required introductory training and continuing education to attain the Basic, Intermediate or Advanced advocate credential.
- Applicants for the Provisional credential must meet the required minimum standards of introductory education.
- NACP makes every effort to ensure that applicants for Basic, Intermediate or Advanced credential offer a good faith representation of victim service experience and advocacy through the application questionnaire, observation evaluations from colleagues, letters of support and follow-up contact.
- NACP has no educational, legal, statutory, regulatory or investigative authority to ensure that applicants are qualified or competent to provide services to crime victims.
- NACP cannot ensure the accuracy of the information provided by the applicant. NACP reserves the right to make changes in the application requirements and process at any time and without notice.
- NACP reserves the right to review, suspend or revoke any credential based upon alleged and/or confirmed violations of the Code of Professional Ethics.
